Title of Your Topic

Names and affiliations of team members

Name and affiliation of the coach

Justification of Topic Relevance
Define the scope of your topic and justify its relevance and importance to U.S.-China relations.

Challenge and Solution
Identify a common challenge faced by the U.S. and China
What is the common challenge and why? Describe the magnitude of the challenge.

Proposed a solution to the identified challenge
Propose a concrete plan. You are encouraged to utilize design thinking and processes to address why and how the U.S. and China should partner to solve the identified challenge.

Justification of Feasibility
Justify the feasibility of implementing the proposed solution with resources that are likely available to the UMN community and within a reasonable timeframe. What roadblocks might your solution run into and how to clear those obstacles?

Impact
What kind of social, political, or economic impact your solution will lead to? What demographic groups will benefit from the proposed solution? Will your solution result in long-term or short-term impact?

References
Provide a list of references in the APA or Chicago style.

(word limit: 1500 excluding references)

Deadline: January 22, 2023; Email to: chinactr@umn.edu